- 5) Free registration for two people to each of our ISSA monthly meetings for the 2023-2024 season (including the Security Forums).*

We have monthly meetings the first Tuesday of the month at the Koppers Building in downtown Pittsburgh. This year we will also be hosting virtual meetings for individuals that cannot attend physically attend the meeting.

Only our sponsors can present at our meetings. The meeting start at 11:00 am. We have two presenters at the monthly meeting with lunch in between presentations.

We have a criteria for our presentations. The presentation must be on a Security related topic. The presentation is NOT to be a sales or product demonstration. There are many excellent products and services that are offered by vendors in the security arena, but we are a vendor neutral organization. We have members of our chapter that are vendors for different companies and they have always show respect for one another.

- The presentation time is usually a minimum of 45 minutes – 1 hour.
 - You must submit your presentation for review and approval at least 2 weeks before your scheduled presentation date.
 - Vendor presenters are permitted to bring literature on their products and services for attendees at the event.
 - Vendors can inform the attendees about the company and provide contact information to the attendees (i.e. Business cards, a slide on the presentation)
